

729 CREEKSIDE Road Penticton British Columbia

$995,000

Awesome location, listen to the creek and watch nature all while being steps from the KVR trail and downtown, this ideal location also falls in the Uplands Elementary School catchment. Built in 2010, this custom home has radiant in-floor heating throughout both levels, you'll be greeted by an inviting open concept layout on the main floor that seamlessly connects the living spaces. The spacious kitchen boasts modern features, including stainless steel appliances, a generously-sized island, and upgraded countertops. The primary bedroom is a true retreat, complete with an en-suite bathroom and a walk-in closet. Additionally, the bedroom showcases a picturesque view of the surrounding forest and the soothing sounds of a nearby creek. The lower level of the home provides ample space for the whole family. With two oversized bedrooms a movie room(4th bed), a full bathroom, separate entrance and rough ins for an in-law suite adds even more value and versatility to this already exceptional home.
