

9 Old Sicamous Road Sicamous British Columbia

$399,900

Welcome to ""The Painted Cottage"" - a stunning character home with sweeping views of Shuswap Lake and the mountains above. This home has been masterfully renovated by the current owners in such a way that honours the character of this 111-year-old bungalow while merging modern design and living functionality. Major updates include a newly engineered foundation, new plumbing, new electrical, newer hot water tank and a newly installed heat pump. Step inside and admire the bright welcoming feel and open concept of the living and dining room areas. The custom finishings of this home are incredible - from the upscaled designed shiplap walls to the meticulously refinished hardwood flooring - every corner of this home exudes attention to detail. This home is being offered "turnkey" and has tons of carefully procured vintage items that add to the home's charm such as an old high school sink from the mid 20th century in the bathroom and an eclectic old wardrobe procured from New Orleans. Step outside in the yard and enjoy one of the several sitting areas around the property, such as the deck or covered lean-to. Take in the panoramic & jaw dropping view of the Shuswap while enjoying the Shuswap lifestyle to the fullest with your family and friends. Be sure to come check this home out quick as it won't last long! (id:6769)
