$629,000

Located in the desirable Black Mountain area, this half-duplex is perfect for families with walking distance to Black Mountain Public School. It features loads of off street parking, complete with level RV pad for all your toys. With a professionally landscaped yard, complete with irrigation, and garden shed, the home has four bedrooms—two on each level—along with 2 full bathrooms, and spacious living areas both upstairs and downstairs. The upper family and kitchen area has a sliding glass door out to a covered deck complete stairs down to the beautiful private, fully fenced yard. The lower family room has full daylight with a sliding glass door out to a covered patio area with beautiful mountain views. This home could be suited if desired, as there is a large utility room that could be converted to a kitchen on the lower level or a workshop! This home is conveniently located for families, with schools, parks, walking paths, hiking, and transit within walking distance. The home has been well-maintained with a newer roof, windows and hot water tank. (id:6769)
