

2284 Westville Place West Kelowna British Columbia

$889,000

Here is a property that has undergone an amazing transformation. It's 97% renovated inside and out and is in move-in condition with all the flooring and paint redone very recently. The private home features 4 bedrooms and 3 baths and sits on a massive .36ac lot that could easily be subdivided or one could build a carriage home that would really improve its usefulness. A move that could generate some decent money over time. It's located close to schools, and walk to the downtown core. Folks, if you don't want to do too much other than move in, this is the home for you. The real bonus is all the opportunities a person could create on this property. (id:6769)
