$774,900

Some homes make an impression. This one makes a statement. Set on approximately two acres in south Winnipeg, 46 Ramblewood Road is a 2,232 sq. ft. custom contemporary home with architecture you simply don't see every day. A sweeping spiral staircase curves along a dramatic glass-block wall, opening to an upper-level loft overlooking the main floor. Below, soaring ceilings, a sunken living room and a wall of south-facing windows set the stage for extraordinary entertaining. The open kitchen and dining area centres on a conversation-starting island with built-in hibachi-style grill, while a wet bar, games area and sauna make staying in feel like going out. Upstairs, the expansive primary retreat features incredible dressing space and a generous ensuite; a second bedroom on the main level offers flexibility as an office. The lower level adds dedicated space for fitness, a den and another full bath. Three full bathrooms, unforgettable design and two acres of breathing room. There is nothing cookie-cutter about this one.
